Market Bites

At the Market this Week...

Snoep Winkel Farm wants to help you with your Labor Day BBQ. This Saturday they are offering 12-lb. boxes of hamburger patties (48 burgers in each box). They normally sell for $66.00 but this weekend's special will be $60.00. To reserve a box, e-mail snoepwinkelgirl@aol.com. Quantities are limited, so it's first come (or e-mail), first serve. They will also have the various steak cuts and London broils available, as well as roaster chickens.

Nina's Red Barn Farm will have raspberries and the very beginning of the Ramapo tomatoes will arrive, but get there early if you want one, they are sure to go fast!

The Masters' Garden will be at the market with hardy FRAGRANT perennial mums and the last of her fern, heuchera and butterfly bushes for the season. Debbie reuses/recycles the 4" and larger pots and trays. Please feel free to bring her yours for her to reuse. Debbie is also taking special orders for plants for next year.

Walnut Grove Farms will be at the market this week and will feature grass-fed beef, pork chops, Italian sausage, breakfast sausage and chicken halves.

Are you going to be the winner???

We've already had some entries for the "2nd Annual Biggest Tomato Contest" and they have all been over 2 pounds! It's not too late for you to enter; there are still two more Saturdays in the contest! Bring your beefiest tomato to Nina's Red Barn Farm booth for weighing between 9:00 AM and Noon.
